

Publication Ethics Strategic Research Journal in Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources

Strategic Research Journal in Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources is committed to delivering high-quality research results in the field of agricultural sciences and natural resources and related branches to the world and therefore all submissions will be peer reviewed. Strategic Research Journal in Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources adopts the following statement for guidelines on publication ethics.

Authors of research papers and review articles of Strategic Research Journal in Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources must confirm the following:

- Report their work(s) accurately and submitted manuscripts must be the original work of the author(s).
- Original research papers should contain sufficient details to allow other researchers to replicate the work.
- Review articles should include the important work of the researchers in a field and should be objectively written.
- Only unpublished manuscripts should be submitted.
- It is unethical to submit a manuscript to more than one journal concurrently.
- Submission of an article implies that the work described has not been published previously (except in the form of an abstract or as part of a published lecture or academic thesis or as an electronic preprint), that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, that its publication is approved by all authors and tacitly or explicitly by the responsible authorities where the work was carried out, and that, if accepted, it will not be published elsewhere in the same form, in English or in any other language, including electronically without the written consent of the copyright-holder.
- Disclose potential conflicts of interest about activities and relationships with other people or organizations that could potentially bias their work.
- Acknowledge the sources of data used in the development of the manuscript.
- All errors discovered in the manuscript after submission must be swiftly communicated to the Editor-in-Chief.
- Any change to the author list after a paper is accepted should be requested by the corresponding author and agreed on by all authors before the paper is published. Such a request should be sent to the Strategic Research Journal in Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources Editor-in-Chief with the reason for the change.
- Plagiarism is a serious violation of publication ethics. Other violations include data fabrication and falsification, and improper credit of author contribution.

Reviewers of Strategic Research Journal in Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources must confirm the following:

- That all manuscripts are reviewed in fairness based on the intellectual content of the paper regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, religion, citizenry nor political values of author(s).

- That any observed conflict of interest during the review process must be communicated to the Editor-in-Chief.
- That all information pertaining to the manuscript is kept confidential.
- That any information that may be the reason for the rejection of publication of a manuscript must be communicated to the Editor-in-Chief.

Editors of Strategic Research Journal in Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources must confirm the following:

- That all manuscripts are evaluated in fairness based on the intellectual content of the paper regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, religion, citizenry nor political values of authors.
- That information pertaining manuscripts are kept confidential.
- That any observed conflict of interest pertaining manuscripts must be disclosed.
- The Editorial Board takes responsibility for making publication decisions for submitted manuscripts based on the reviewer's evaluation of the manuscript, policies of the journal editorial board and legal restraint acting against plagiarism, libel and copyright infringement.

Handling Cases of Misconduct: Once a violation against Strategic Research Journal in Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources publication ethics is confirmed, the following actions will be taken:
